Hand Appliqué the Back Basting Way

Have you tried appliqué and been unhappy with your results? Hate templates and fussy stuff but love the look of appliqué? Looking for a portable project for summer? Come and try your hand at the back basting method, which makes appliqué easy. Margie has been using this method for a couple of decades. She will share the basting method and also share tips on the tricky bits of appliqué. Save the date! A link for signups will be emailed in mid-May.

May Show & Tell

MEMBER OF THE MONTH Lynetta Raplee

Lynetta worked in the medical profession for 42 years. 23 years in nursing and 19 years in Information Technology coding, installing, and enhancing Electronic Medical Records and Electronic Medical Billing. 14 of those 19 years was working in Pasadena California flying back and forth every week between Lafayette and Pasadena.

Besides quilting, she enjoys traveling, Purdue Men's Basketball, reading, taking walks (enjoying the many trails Tioocanoe County has to offer), spending time with her 4 grandchildren, and managing her parents farm along with the 5 hours of mowing it takes to keep the farm looking nice. She sometimes wonder how I ever had time to work

Her Mother was an avid quilter and taught her the basics about 20 years ago. It was only after she retired in 2018 that she really got into quilting. She took several classes from Andrea Schmidt and watched many YouTube videos and online tutorials. She likes to try and make challenging quilts, learning something new with each quilt. She also loves going on Quilt Shop Hops and try to do at least 2 a year. She has been a guild member since 2019 when Andrea introduced me to OTQG.

CHARITY QUILTS

Area IV partnership, the guild donated 7 quilts in March.

"During the visit, Shari's eyes lit up with pure happiness as she received a beautiful quilt, lovingly handmade by the talented members of Old Tippecanoe Quilt Guild. It was clear that receiving this beautiful creation, adorned in her favorite color -pink - brought immense joy to her day. Sending endless gratitude to the Old Tippecanoe Quilt Guild for their kindness and craftsmanship."
